

The Secret New York Tour

List of sights you will see on this tour

Your tour may be customized to spend more or less time at particular sights of interest to you, as well as ones you'd rather skip. On all our private tours, sights are seen from both inside and outside the vehicle.

Greenwich Village: Meander through the narrow, tree-lined streets with your guide and you'll instantly be caught under its spell. Far removed from the skyscrapers of Midtown, here you'll feel like your in a small town somewhere that's not New York, yet this is probably the most characteristically New York neighborhood of them all! The history of Greenwich Village that is. Cafes, artists, reformers & intellectuals. More has happened here to influence popular culture than perhaps any other neighborhood in the world. You'll LOVE this place. LOTS to discover here.

Meatpacking District: This trendy section of The Village is ripe with contradictions. By day men in blood-stained white coats unload truckloads of fresh meat and whole pigs. By night the area morphs into one of the City's hottest night life destinations. Discover some of the secrets of this neighborhood-of-the-moment.

Gramercy Park: Home to the only private park in Manhattan this elegant neighborhood has some stunning architecture and wonderful history few New Yorkers even know about.

East Village: It's here where Abraham Lincoln gave a speech that kick-started his presidential campaign in 1860. It's also the birthplace of punk music and was home to the Beatnik movement in the 1950's. Learn about the Rock 'n' Roll history of this amazing neighborhood, discover the secrets of an old church dating back to 1799 and find a few other unexpected discoveries in this very diverse, very historic neighborhood.

Wall Street / Financial District: Take a walk through the City's and our nation's financial capital. This is also the oldest part of the City, when it was originally called New Amsterdam. How did it all start? What made New York the capital of commerce? Learn all this and more.

Chinatown: Full of interesting history and culture, Chinatown offers plenty for the curious-minded adventurer. Discover what used to be a secret tunnel for the Chinese tongs (mafia). Go off the beaten path and wander through this other-worldly neighborhood's crooked, narrow streets.

Brooklyn Heights: A beautifully serene neighborhood with some fascinating history, little-known landmarks and great architecture. A visit here promises to be one of the highlights of your trip to New York.

D.U.M.B.O.: What was once a gritty manufacturing and warehouse district on the waterfront has been transferred into a vibrant, artsy and pricey neighborhood. Learn about the local history of this waterfront and discover its secrets.
